Intro

| 1 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 |

Verse #1

1 5 1 5
You speak to me in natural harmony
1 5 1 5
Like we both grew up with nothin'
1 5 1 5
And I can't believe my own memory
1 5 1
But it one day could be coming

Chorus

4 1 5 4 1
And I don't even know the wrong I've done
4 1 5 4 1
And I don't even care any - more
6m 2maj 6m 2maj
All I know is I believe that you and me
4 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 |
Forever will stand accused of love

Verse #2

Watched the sun go down behind London Town
I was burnt, stood up in Mayfair
I caught a train, black cars through the rain
From the trust that hung betrayed there

Chorus

And I don't even know the wrong I've done
And I don't even care anymore
All I know is I believe that you and me
Forever will stand accused of love (fill) | 1 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 | 1 5 |

SOLO: | 6m 2maj | 6m 2maj | 4 | 5 |
| 6m 2maj | 6m 2maj | 4 | 5 |

Verse #3

Well, the attorney grins, the witness is drug in
With his face half hid in shadow
Sworn to God and state the truth arrives too late
And defense goes out the window

Ending Chorus

And we don't even know the wrong we've done
And we don't even care anymore
All I know is I believe that you and me
Forever will stand accused of love
Will stand accused of love
Will stand accused of love... [ OPTION: go to call-response ad hoc ending ]
